

Day 1

Complete the following "Word Power" quiz.

Either print out and return to me or email your answers to me at agalownia@ulschools.com

Enjoy the day!

Word Power®

ARE YOU TOTALLY at ease navigating the Web? Or do your attempts at surfing turn out more like the dog paddle? Either way, this quiz is for you. The language of the Internet has become so pervasive that even if you've never used a computer, you'll probably "connect" with some of the terms below.

- 1. cookie n.—A: advertising gimmick. B: personal data. C: cool website. D: pop-up window.
- 2. flame v.—A: to make derogatory comments. B: overheat. C: get an error message. D: exceed capacity.
- 3. spam n.—A: defect. B: nickname. C: junk mail. D: quick fix.
- 4. download v.—A: to compress. B: turn off. C: open. D: transfer.
- 5. fire wall n.—A: message center. B: filter. C: rapid exchange of data. D: printer glitch.
- 6. cache n.—A: e-trade currency. B: trash. C: storage. D: great find.
- 7. cyberspace n.—A: blank screen. B: available memory. C: bandwidth. D: the Internet.
- 8. link n.—A: website. B: advisory. C: connection. D: delay.
- 9. URL n.—A: mouse. B: password. C: monitor. D: address.
- 10. worm n.—type of A: web user. B: screen defect. C: computer virus. D: curved keyboard.
- 11. Java n.—A: coffee break. B: programming language. C: built-in alarm. D: garbled text.
- 12. burn v.—A: to record. B: erase. C: originate. D: repeat.
- 13. ISP n.—A: idiot's system primer. B: illusory screen presence. C: Internet service provider. D: Institute of Software Professionals.
- 14. thread n.—A: really short e-mail. B: security code. C: weak web connection. D: related series.
- 15. reboot v.—A: to send back. B: restart. C: rewrite. D: crash.
- 16. hacker n.—A: poor typist. B: surfer. C: slow learner. D: skilled programmer.
- 17. portal n.—A: starting point. B: message. C: disc. D: cursor.
- 18. netiquette n.—A: mesh monitor cover. B: tool bar. C: politeness. D: computer novice.
- 19. offline adj.—A: in poor taste. B: idle. C: dead. D: not connected.
- 20. applet n.—A: small, bright-colored computer. B: illustration. C: glitch. D: mini-program.