

Info Tech I & II - Mrs. Galownia

Day 3

Complete the following crossword puzzle. If you cannot print, just write your answers below the puzzle and email to me at agalownia@ulschools.com

Enjoy the day!

Complete the puzzle.

Down

1. a site that serves as a starting point, typically allowing easy access to other sites
2. to shut down a computer and start it up again
3. series of related messages or postings on a given topic
4. to make derogatory comments or insults in a chat room
5. address of a website
6. storage allowing rapid access to data
7. connection or bridge from one site to a document or other site

Across

8. small program built into a website
9. type of computer virus that replicates itself
10. to record data to a disc
11. junk mail
12. programming language developed for Internet applications
13. Internet service providers are companies that supply access to the web